

Can conventional sheep be managed organically for 1 year and then be used for organic wool production?

No. The 1-year livestock conversion only applies to dairy animals' eligibility to produce organic milk. All other livestock must be managed organically from the last third of gestation.

e-CFR